

PRIVATE SECTOR INSTRUCTOR AWARD

Scroll down for criteria, instruction for nomination and nomination form.

National Award

This award was established by the AWS Board of Directors as a means of honoring educators in the welding community teaching in private facilities. These individuals, in the opinion of the AWS National Awards Committee, have advanced the knowledge of welding to their students through apprenticeship programs, internal corporate training programs, and similar nonpublic educational activities.

Each year during District Conferences, the AWS District Awards Subcommittee, with their District Director's approval, may submit the name of one nominee by September 1 to the Chairman of the AWS National Awards Committee. Districts with total membership exceeding 800 may submit one additional nominee. A Section may nominate no more than one individual each year.

Each awardee receives a certificate and free registration to attend all technical sessions at the AWS Welding Show in the year that the award is presented. The award consists of a certificate.

District Private Sector Instructor Award

This award was established by the AWS Board of Directors as a means of honoring candidates at the District level who were not nominated for the National Private Sector Instructor Award.

Criteria for nomination follow the same guidelines as outlined in the description for the National Private Sector Instructor Award. Candidates submitted for this Award will automatically receive the District Private Sector Instructor Award consisting of a certificate that will be forwarded to the appropriate District Director for presentation to the awardee(s) at a suitable setting. Maximum two recipients, per District, per award.

Section Private Sector Instructor Award

This award was established by the AWS Board of Directors as a means of honoring candidates at the Section level who were not nominated for either the National or District level Private Sector Instructor Awards. Criteria for nomination follow the same guidelines as for the National and District level Private Sector Instructor Award. All nominees submitted for this award will automatically receive the Section Private Sector Instructor Award consisting of a certificate that will be forwarded to the appropriate District Director for presentation to the awardee(s) at a suitable setting. There is no limit to the number of recipients.
